

HorsesLandWater

Keynote Speaker: Alayne Bickle

Alayne (USA) is the founder & Program Manager of www.HorsesforCleanWater.com. The program educates horse owners about environmentally sensitive horse keeping with a particular focus on small properties.

Jane Myers has established a successful business educating horse owners about horse keeping practices & welfare. Jane will speak on findings gained through a 2011 Churchill Fellowship investigating horse sustainable keeping practices in different countries.

www.equiculture.com.au

Australian Horse Keeping Conference

Living Legends Melbourne

12 /13 Nov 2012

Fees start @ $150 per day/ catered. Early bird offers!

Small Property Environmental Management -- Horse Health - Climate Change Impacts - Posters

Target Audiences- Day 1: Professional development focus for horse property managers, NRM Officers & Local Government Planners. Educators, lecturers, coaches & LandCare leaders involved with peri-urban horse keeping properties. A range of guest speakers & presentations. Program out in May.

Day 2: Horse property managers and horse owners (including owners with horses on agistment) Horse care, NRM, LandCare & Ag Science educators & coaches. On day 2 Alayne will deliver a HorsesforCleanWater sample program.

Call for Posters: (Research, Horse Keeping Model Practices & Programs) Opens 1 February: Closes 1 August

Call for additional presenters: Opens 1 February: Closes 1 April

Limited Trade Sites available Enq. horsesa@horsesa.asn.au

Registrations: Early bird fees apply before 1 Sept. 2012. Discount for Horse SA members. Monday night Optional gourmet BBQ tea & 2.5 hr. drinks package avail. Guests of delegates welcome to BBQ.

REGISTER HERE: <http://www.trybooking.com/BCDX>

Enq: horsesa@horsesa.asn.au www.horseslandwater.com

Sponsorship Available

